

Dear Colleague:

On behalf of the program director, Lee Kirksey, MD, Cleveland Clinic Heart, Vascular and Thoracic Institute and the Association of Black Cardiologists, Inc., we invite you to participate as an exhibitor at our upcoming course, Cardiovascular Update for the Primary Care Provider: Improving CV Care Access and Outcomes Across all Communities, on October 19-20, 2023. The program faculty will offer an assessment of where we are today in managing common cardiovascular conditions and share insights on how we chart the path forward for addressing related health disparities.

This will be a live event, held at the Hilton Cleveland Downtown in Cleveland, Ohio.

This course will bring together experts in cardiovascular disease (CV) for a review of fundamentals and the most important changes in CV medicine including the diagnosis and management of commonly encountered CV conditions. Session topics will also address persistent disparities in CV care to ensure patients across all communities receive the highest, most-up-to-date quality of care and achieve the best possible outcomes.

More information on the program can be found at <http://ccfcme.org/CVdisparity23>.

The course is directed to advanced healthcare professionals, general cardiologists, primary care and internal medicine providers who will benefit from the wide number of CV topics discussed to enhance their practice for patients seen daily. The activity is expected to draw approximately 200 practitioners.

AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ will be provided by the Cleveland Clinic Center for Continuing Education. This live CME program fully complies with ACCME Standards for Commercial Support, and is developed independently and without influence by any commercial interests.
