DESCRIPTION/OVERVIEW
This is a half-day, live-interactive webinar course that will enable participants to stay abreast on the current research, treatments, and diagnoses in liver disease. Expert faculty will discuss complex cases, accompanied by analyses of therapies that significantly impact the understanding and management of a range of liver disease.

Featured topics will include:
• COVID in the Immunocompromised and Transplant Patient
• Ethyl Alcohol (EtOH) and Liver
• Hepatology Healthcare Delivery and COVID: HCV, Consults, Inpatients and more
• Liver Cancer and Liver Transplantation
• From The Trenches: COVID Liver Consults

OBJECTIVES
After completing this activity, participants will be able to do the following:
• Summarize the most important research findings related to these key topic areas: liver transplantation, cholestatic liver disease, hepatitis B, hepatitis C, liver cancer, liver transplantation, non-alcoholic fatty liver disease, and alcoholic liver disease
• Assess the impact of COVID-19 in patients diagnosed with liver diseases
• Review challenging case presentations and optimize treatment strategies to improve patient outcomes

TARGET AUDIENCE
This program is designed for all health care providers who treat patients with liver disease including gastroenterologists, hepatologists, gastrointestinal surgeons, internists, family practitioners, nurse practitioners, nurses and physician assistants.
