

Dear Potential Exhibitor:

On behalf of Sanjay Mukhopadhyay, MD and Sean Williamson, MD, from the Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine, Diagnostic Institute at Cleveland Clinic, and the Cleveland Clinic Center for Continuing Education, I am writing to invite you to exhibit during the Cleveland Clinic Multispecialty Pathology Symposium.

The symposium will be held January 23-25, 2026, at the Four Seasons Hotel Las Vegas in Las Vegas NV. The exhibit fee is $2,500. The symposium is expected to draw a national audience of 80 attendees.

The 2.5-day, live, educational Symposium will focus on practical discussions of commonly encountered dilemmas in surgical pathology.

The goal of this symposium is to provide useful tips that the speakers utilize in their own practice at the microscope. It will also address and discuss common problems and avoid an undue focus on esoterica. A broad spectrum of cases, including genitourinary pathology, pulmonary pathology, gastrointestinal pathology, breast pathology, and gynecologic pathology will be covered. Practicing pathologists, fellows, and residents who attend will maintain, develop, and increase their knowledge, competence, and professional performance, with the intent to improve diagnosis and positively impact patient care.

More detailed symposium information is available on the symposium website at <http://www.ccfcmec.org/Pathology26>.

We look forward to your participation during this exciting initiative. Space is limited; to reserve your spot, please register online as soon as possible at the following link: www.ccfcmec.org/exhibit-pathology.

We are hopeful that you will participate. This is an excellent opportunity to interact with many of the key opinion leaders in the field of pathology.

If you wish to participate, there are two payment options. Exhibitors may pay by credit card while registering on the website or choose to pay later by check. If you choose the latter, checks should be made payable to The Cleveland Clinic Educational Foundation, (Tax ID # 34-0714553) and mailed to:
