About the Course

This course will provide radiation oncologists, medical oncologists, radiation physicists, nurses and others with current data and information that have been presented at the national meetings.

As a result of attending this course, the participant will be able to:

- Review important abstracts from the 2018 meetings.
- Describe current treatment options for various malignancies.
- Discuss ongoing clinical trials in radiation oncology.

Faculty Disclosure

The Cleveland Clinic Foundation Center for Continuing Education has implemented a policy to comply with the current Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education Standards for Commercial Support requiring resolution of all faculty conflicts of interest. Faculty declaring a relevant commercial interest will be identified in the activity syllabus.

Accreditation

The Cleveland Clinic Foundation Center for Continuing Education is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Cleveland Clinic Foundation Center for Continuing Education designates this live activity for a maximum of 4.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Participants claiming CME credit from this activity may submit the credit hours to the American Osteopathic Association for Category 2 credit.

The Ohio Board of Nursing will accept at face value the number of contact hours awarded for an educational activity that has been approved for CE by a nationally accredited system of CE approval.

Nurses are able to obtain CE that has been approved or provided by a nationally recognized accreditation system of continuing education.

Examples include:

- The American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC)
- The Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME)
- The International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET)
