7th Annual Advances in Congenital Heart Disease Summit: Transposition of the Great Arteries: The Master Class February 16-18, 2023

Dear Potential Exhibitor:

On behalf of Cleveland Clinic Heart, Vascular, and Thoracic Institute, Cleveland Clinic Children's, University of Florida Health Congenital Heart Center, and Cleveland Clinic Center for Continuing Education, we invite you to exhibit during their upcoming CME, 7th Annual Advances in Congenital Heart Disease Summit: Transposition of the Great Arteries: The Master Class. The in-person symposium will held at the Orlando World Center Marriott in Orlando, FL, on February 16-18, 2023. We anticipate 100 participants.

There are three exhibit levels available – Platinum ($10,000), Gold ($7500) and Silver ($5000). Additional promotional opportunities are available.

To view exhibit levels, promotional opportunities and to reserve your space please visit our website at: http://www.clevelandclinicmeded.com/live/courses/CongenitalHeart23/exhibit.asp.

This activity is designed to improve participants' competence and clinical practice to diagnose and select appropriate treatment strategies for pediatric and adult patients with congenital heart defects. This includes improving their competence to select the most appropriate diagnostic modalities and treatment plans, especially surgical approaches. These changes in competence and clinical practice will result in better outcomes for these patients.

The Summit is targeted to cardiothoracic surgeons, pediatricians, anesthesiologists, cardiologists, critical care physicians, OB-GYNs, perfusionists, nurses, nurse practitioners, physician's assistants, respiratory therapists, and other health care professionals interested in congenital heart disease.

If you wish to participate, there are two payment options. Exhibitors may pay by credit card while registering on the website, or choose to pay later by check. If you choose the later, checks should be made payable to The Cleveland Clinic Educational Foundation, (Tax ID # 34-0714553) and mailed to:
