

Cleveland Clinic Ultrasound Course: Integrating POCUS into Your Practice
May 8-11, 2024

Dear Potential Exhibitor:

On behalf of Eduardo Mireles, MD, Director, Simulation and Advanced Skills Center, Shetal N. Shah, MD, with the Imaging Institute, and Courtney Smalley, MD, with the Emergency Services Institute, of the Cleveland Clinic in Cleveland, Ohio and the Center for Continuing Education, we invite you to exhibit during the upcoming CME, Cleveland Clinic Ultrasound Course: Integrating POCUS into Your Practice. This hands-on workshop will be held May 8-11, 2024 at the Cleveland Clinic Simulation and Advanced Skills Center in Cleveland, OH.

There are four exhibit levels to choose from – Diamond ($8,000), Platinum ($6,000), Gold ($3,000) and Silver ($2,000). Additional promotional opportunities are available. The exhibit tables will be located in the atrium area of the basement of the Simulation and Advanced Skills Center inside of the Stanley Shalom Zielony Plaza building.

Space is limited; to view levels and to reserve your spot, please register online as soon as possible at the following link: <http://ccfcme.org/exhibit-GoUltra>

Directed to physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, nurses, fellows and residents in emergency medicine, internal medicine, hospital medicine, critical care, cardiology, pulmonology, anesthesiology, and radiology, this symposium is designed to provide attendees opportunity to interact with key leaders in the area of POCUS. Anticipated attendance for the in-person course is 40+ participants each day.

If you wish to participate, there are two payment options. Exhibitors may pay by credit card while registering on the website or choose to pay later by check. If you choose the latter, checks should be made payable to The Cleveland Clinic Educational Foundation, (Tax ID # 34-0714553) and mailed to:
