

14th Annual Basic and Clinical Immunology for the Busy Clinician & Advances in Integrative Immunology

February 28 – March 1, 2026

Caesars Palace NOBU Hotel, Las Vegas, NV

Dear Potential Exhibitor:

On behalf of Cleveland Clinic's RJ Fasenmyer Center for Clinical Immunology and Activity Directors Drs. Leonard Calabrese, Cassandra Calabrese, and Elaine Husni, we invite you to exhibit at the upcoming 14th Annual Basic and Clinical Immunology for the Busy Clinician & Advances in Integrative Immunology CME Symposium. The in-person symposium will take place at Caesars Palace Las Vegas Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada on February 28 – March 1, 2026. The symposium will also be available via live stream. We anticipate 100+ in-person participants and 300+ live stream participants.

To view exhibit levels, promotional opportunities and to reserve your space, please visit our website at www.ccfcmec.org/Clinical.

This annual course is designed for busy clinicians looking for an opportunity to enhance their declarative and procedural knowledge in the field of immunology, as it applies to patients with immune mediated inflammatory diseases. Participants will have a chance to learn practical, integrative strategies for managing immune-mediated conditions, explore the role of immune health in healthy aging and chronic disease, and break down the latest advances in immunology through interactive sessions. Participants will earn CME credits, while networking with leading experts and like-minded clinicians.

The symposium is directed to rheumatologists, dermatologists, infectious disease clinicians, allergists, clinical immunologists, and specialists in integrative medicine, preventive medicine, wellness, primary care and other health care professionals caring for patients with immunologic diseases.

Please feel free to contact me if you have questions or require further information.

Thank you for your consideration.

Kindest regards,

Jyl Rhoden
