

Dear Potential Exhibitors,

On behalf of Activity Director James Fernandez, MD, PhD, Department of Allergy & Clinical Immunology at Cleveland Clinic, and the Cleveland Clinic Center for Continuing Education, we request your support during the upcoming Updates in Primary Immunodeficiency 2026 CME symposium.

The in-person symposium will be held at the InterContinental Hotel & Conference Center on Cleveland Clinic's Main Campus on September 18-19, 2026. A live stream option is also available. We anticipate over 100 participants and faculty for the course.

This course is designed for health care professionals, including physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, fellows, and residents, with an interest in allergy, immunology, rheumatology, hematology and beyond.

The exhibit levels are Diamond - $20,000; Platinum - $15,000; Gold - $10,000; Silver - $5,000; Bronze - $3000. The Diamond, Platinum and Gold levels include a non-CME satellite presentation. The exhibit hall will be outside of the lecture hall.

To view exhibit levels, promotional opportunities and to reserve your space please visit our website at <https://www.clevelandclinicmeded.com/live/courses/immunodeficiency/exhibit.asp>

If you wish to participate, there are two payment options. Exhibitors may pay by credit card while registering on the website or choose to pay later by check. If you choose the latter, checks should be made payable to The Cleveland Clinic Educational Foundation, (Tax ID # 34-0714553) and mailed to:
