

EXPLORING PROFESSIONALISM IN SURGICAL SPECIALTIES

FEATURED KEYNOTE

Thomas J. Nasca, MD, MACP

Former CEO,
Accreditation Council for Graduate
Medical Education (ACGME)

Senior Fellow and Administrative Director, ACGME Center for Professionalism and the Future of Medicine

SYMPOSIUM THEMES

Surgical professionalism
in practice

Ethical decision-making and transparency

Professional identity formation

Preparing the next generation of surgeons

ABOUT THE SYMPOSIUM

Professionalism is foundational to patient trust, team performance, and the future of our profession. This symposium brings together surgeons, educators, and leaders to examine real-world challenges and share practical approaches to strengthening professional standards across the surgical enterprise with a special focus

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Surgeons and Surgical Subspecialists

Faculty and Physician Leaders

Residents, Fellows, Nurses, APPs, and Medical Students

All Clinicians Invested in a Culture of Professionalism

EVENT DETAILS

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2026

<http://www.ccfcmec.org/Professionalism>

HEALTH EDUCATION CAMPUS CLEVELAND CLINIC

9500 Euclid Avenue
Cleveland, OH 44195

Advance professionalism. Strengthen the future of surgery.